Take the following steps in the EVZ (recording of the performance of the employees) module:

- Create a group of activities and activities corresponding with the character of the company

- Assess the value of the activities at internal and external rates

- Create performances for the buyers, employees, various days

- Make the monthly closure and also close the evidence of performances

- Evaluate the performances and do a statistical analysis according to the employees, days, customers

- Post the performances to the accounts and invoicing